THEATRE
SCHOOL

2009-2010

The Lehigh Valley's premier children's theatre school

Civic Theatre School provides young people with an exciting program in drama and movement. In addition to learning the theatre arts, CTS students develop discipline, teamwork and self-confidence. Talented, experienced educators with performance backgrounds create a comfortable environment where students can develop the skills they will use on stage and in life. Although Civic Theatre School is dedicated to a focus on process, each student enjoys a number of performance opportunities to demonstrate his or her skills on stage, including Annie Jr. - cast only with CTS students - and the option to audition for Civic's annual production of A Christmas Carol!
